The Wisconsin Historical Museum is located on Madison's Capitol Square and is full of wonderful information about the state's rich history. Explore Wisconsin's distinctive heritage and a variety of other American history topics through:

- Artifacts
- Photographs
- Full-scale dioramas
- Audio-visual presentations
- Interactive multimedia programs
- Guided tours

Depending on the group's size the whole group may be divided into smaller groups to work with individual tour guides. Combinations of guided programs with self-guided programs are also available. The Museum is fully accessible to physically disabled patrons. Temporary bus parking is available for unloading and loading passengers.
